You are required (by law or in order to enter into your contract of employment) to provide the categories of information marked (*) above to us to enable us to verify your right to work and suitability for the position. Without providing us with this information, or if the information is not satisfactory, then we will not be able to proceed with any offer of employment.

If you are employed by Transform Trust, including in one of our schools, some of the information we collect will be included on our Single Central Record. In this scenario, a further privacy notice in relation to data we collect, process, hold and share about you during your time with us, will be issued to you.

Where do we get information from during your application process?

Depending on the position that you have applied for, we may collect this information from you, your referees (which will be provided directly by you), your education provider, any relevant professional body, the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), DFE and the Home Office, during the recruitment process. For online /social media searches we will use common search engines, on-line tools and social media platforms

Why do we use this information?

We will process your personal data during your application process for the purpose of complying with our legal obligations, carrying out tasks that are in the public interest, and taking the required steps with a view to entering into an employment contract with you.

This includes:

- To assess your suitability for the role you are applying for.
- To follow protocols before engaging in a contract with you.
- To check that you are eligible to work in the United Kingdom.
- To check that you are not prohibited from teaching; and
- So that we are able to monitor applications for posts in Transform Trust to ensure that we are fulfilling our obligations under the public sector equality duty as part of the Equality Act 2010.

How long will we hold information in relation to your application?

We will hold information relating to your application only for as long as necessary. If you are successful, then the duration will depend on the type of information that has been gathered.

For further detail please ask to see the appropriate section of our Information Register which details our retention and storage of information.

If you are unsuccessful, we will hold your personal data only for six months, after which time it is securely deleted.

Who will we share information with about your application?

We will not share information gathered during your application process with third parties, other than professional advisors such as legal and/or HR professionals.

Rights in relation to your personal data

The UK-GDPR gives you certain rights about how your information is collected and used. To make a request for your personal information, contact the Trust Data Protection Officer. You also have the following rights:

- The right to be informed about the collection and use of your personal data this is called 'right to be informed'.
